St. Mary's Cathedral, Natchez, Mississippi

3B391-N

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL — The cornerstone of this splendid Gothic Cathedral was laid in 1842, and the first mass was said within its walls in 1843. Since then each generation has contributed to its completion; there being added successively its vaulted and frescoed ceilings, its fine stained glass windows, and its exquisite carrara marble altar.

The first white men in this section were missionary priests who came in 1699 to bring the gospel to the natives. From that time to the present Catholicism has had here a continuous history.
